

In The News

January 21, 2019

Program connects high school and college students to local

2018-10-23

After connecting more than 100 high school and college students with internships last school year at businesses in Bend, Redmond and Madras, the Youth Career Connect program is expanding to Sisters and Prineville. Click below to see full article!!

